

WEST BRATTLEBORO

Fortieth Anniversary Observed.

A party of 20 of the near neighbors and friends of Mrs. J. J. Morse called on them Wednesday evening to help them celebrate the fortieth anniversary of their marriage. The guests were invited by Mrs. Morse, but their coming was an entire surprise to Mr. Morse. He wanted to invite a set of old friends to meet for a card party that evening in honor of the occasion. Mrs. Morse objected to their coming that night and planned for a card party of four tables to meet with them last evening, which they did, and some of the guests who formed part of the surprise party of the night before were invited. Both evenings were spent very pleasantly and very enjoyable refreshments were served on both occasions. Mr. and Mrs. Morse were remembered with a sum of money, gifts of glass, confectionery and flowers, besides numerous cards and congratulatory letters.

James Stanford Morse and Annie E. Sargent were married at the old Revere House Dec. 15, 1872. Rev. Mr. Jenkins, pastor of the Unitarian church, officiating. They were unattended. A snow storm came that day and the weather was extremely cold. The window panes were covered thickly with frost. After the marriage they started on their wedding journey which took them to Boston, Cambridge and Fitchburg. On their return they began keeping house in this place and three years later bought the place on Glen street, where they have lived since. Mr. Morse's parents were Henry and Eliza Nichols Morse. His mother is living at the advanced age of 96. Mrs. Morse's parents were Luther and Annie Stearns Sargent, former residents of this place, both of whom died several years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Morse are well known and respected citizens and the good wishes of many friends follow them in their advance toward their golden wedding.

Killed by a Fall in a Quarry.

Earl H. Buttle, 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Buttle of Bethel, was found dead Tuesday morning at the bottom of the 300-foot shaft of the New England Talc company's mine in Rochester. He spent the night in the mine in charge of a pump and in the morning signalled that he was ready to come up. When the hoisting bucket reached the top of the shaft it contained only a coat. A man who was lowered at once found Buttle's mangled body. It is supposed that he lost his balance and fell from the bucket.

$3.50 Recipe Free For Weak Kidneys

Relieve Urinary and Kidney Troubles, Backache, Straining, Ewelling, Etc.

Stops Pain in the Bladder, Kidneys and Back.

Wouldn't it be nice within a week or so to begin to say goodbye forever to the scalding, dribbling, straining, or too frequent passage of urine; the forehead and back-of-the-head aches; the stiffness and pains in the back; the growing muscle weakness; spots before the eyes; yellow skin; sluggish bowels; swollen ankles or knees; leg cramps; unusual short breath; sleeplessness and the despondency?

I have a recipe for these troubles that you may depend on, and if you want to make a quick recovery, you ought to write and get a copy of it. Many a doctor would charge you $2.50 for writing this prescription, but I have it and will be glad to send it to you entirely free. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, 1148 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send it by return mail in a plain envelope. As you will see when you get it, this recipe contains only pure harmless remedies, but it has great healing and pain-conquering power. It will quickly show its power once you use it, so I think you had better see what it is without delay. I will send you a copy free—you can use it and cure yourself at home.

Paul Smith, 87, the patriarch of the Adirondacks, died Sunday in a hospital in Montreal following a surgical operation. He was a native of Milton, Vt., and for more than 60 years had been identified with the development of the great northern woods. Smith went into the woods as a guide with no capital. In early 60's he established a small lodge or hotel which eventually became a well established housing hundreds of people in the summer time. Smith owned over 30,000 acres in woodland and lake, and in addition the country grows owner of a store, sawmill, electric plant and a large equipment for his various lines of business.

Fuller T. Smith of St. Albans has resigned the position of national bank examiner for Vermont and Western Massachusetts, which he has filled the past four years.

WEST BRATTLEBORO

Death of Cotton Mather.

Cotton Mather, 79, for many years a prominent resident of this village and a well-known stone mason, died in his home about 10:25 o'clock yesterday forenoon after an illness of two weeks. He contracted a cold, which was followed by congestion of the lungs and a heart trouble. A council of physicians was held Sunday and his death was pronounced. Mather was a native of West Brattleboro, Mass., and was a descendant of Rev. Richard Mather, Cotton Mather's grandfather, who came from England to Boston in 1635, and died in Dorchester in 1699. He was a lineal descendant of Rev. Richard Mather, who was the first of the week to assist in caring for him. Funeral services will be held in the home Sunday at 2 o'clock.
